

search improves → users search on google → behavioral data users click what they want search engine returns things pre-2002

Advertisers will pay to be featured google can serve ads that it thinks are relevant (using analytics capabilities + behavioral data) user don't know what/that you're collecting